The objective of this lab is to better understand the processes of mitosis and meiosis by observing and conducting various experiments. Investigation One: Models Part One: Mitosis. ... If a model of meiosis is built out of Oreos then we will be able to better visualize and understand the process of cell division.

Meiosis Lab Meiosis is a cell division resulting in the halving, or reduction, of chromosome number in each cell. A diploid organism has two sets of chromosomes (2n), while a haploid cell or organism has one set (1n). Meiosis produces gametes (ova and sperm) in animals and spores in fungi, plants, and protists.

Meiosis - BAHE'S BIOLOGY

Meiosis Sexual reproduction occurs when a male reproductive cell fuses with a female reproductive cell. These reproductive cells are called gametes, and the resulting cell from the fusion of 2 gametes is called a zygote. This process of combining 2 gametes to form a zygote is called fertilization.

General Biology Lab #10 - Meiosis

Meiosis Meiosis is similar to Mitosis, however Meiosis undergoes each step twice. The cell begins with Prophase I, similarly having the membrane dissolve and the centrioles move to opposite ends. However in Metaphase I, the chromosomes line up in homologous pairs, not along the metaphase plate but across from a chromosome carrying a similar trait.

Meiosis is the second important kind of nuclear division. It resembles mitosis in many ways but the consequences of meiotic divisions are very different from those of mitotic divisions. While mitotic division may occur in almost any living cell of an organism, meiosis occurs only in special cells.

Comparison of chromosome dynamics in meiosis and mitosis. From Forsburg, Mol Cell 9:703 (2002) (A) Mitosis in a cell with two chromosomes ensures that each daughter cell receives a copy of each chromosome. Importantly, while the apparatus of mitosis ensures that each daughter cell will have a copy of chromosome 1 and chromosome 2, it does not distinguish which one.
